

Kennedy Youths Put on Probation

BARNSTABLE, Mass. (AP) — A judge has told two young Kennedy cousins that marijuana possession charges against them will be dropped in September 1971 if they stay out of trouble.

Dist. Court Judge Henry L. Murphy said his action in the cases of the two 16-year-olds, Robert F. Kennedy Jr. and R. sargent Shriver III, was the usual procedure for juveniles the first time they are brought to court on such charges.

He declined to find them innocent or guilty of charges that they were delinquent by reason of possession of marijuana, and said the continuances he granted them until September 1971 had the "effect of probation."

Present with the youths during a 20-minute session before Judge Murphy were Kennedy's mother, Ethel, and uncle, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., and Shriver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Sargent Shriver Jr.

By law, juvenile cases are secret in Massachusetts. Judge Murphy spoke with reporters after the court session and authorized the release of a statement that the Kennedy and Shriver youths and 10 other juveniles who appeared before him had their cases continued. Seven of the juveniles were accused of drug-law violations.

The senior Shriver, a former U.S. ambassador to France and husband of Sen. Kennedy's oldest sister, Eunice, said afterward that the judge "heard all the facts."

"The boys were in court for the first time in their lives and now they're going home with their parents," he said.

Sen. Kennedy said only that Shriver's comments covered the case.

The cousins were answering summonses that were brought to their summer homes Tuesday night and ordered them to appear on charges of being in possession of marijuana July 10.

One version of the incident, gleaned from talks with some young summer residents of the area, was that an unidentified taxi driver was a police informer and linked the two Kennedy cousins to marijuana.

One young man said he heard that the taxi driver had taken the Kennedy youth and three friends 60 miles to Cohasset from Hyannis Port July 10 on a trip to retrieve a pet falcon that had escaped from the Kennedy compound.

Several youths said the taxi driver had been seen several times in a vacant barn near the Kennedy compound, which is in Hyannis Port, a section of Barnstable.

Asked why the summonses had not been served earlier, Barnstable Police Sgt. Verl Setler said state police had been conducting an undercover investigation into drug use on Cape Cod for months.

I will work with any individual or with any group of people to promote every worthwhile project that you think is good for the community and county.

As your County Judge I assure you that I will work with the State Highway Commission or anyone else to get every mile of county road added to the state highway system possible. I believe with the cooperation of all, quite a few miles can be added every year to state highway system.

As your County Judge I will sponsor the government programs to help our younger and older people.

I will know our roads and will talk with mail carriers and school bus drivers about conditions of their roads.

I will try to get, as nearly as possible, value received for every dollar spent.

I will work with each community throughout the county in helping with garbage disposal problems.

I will serve all of our county fairly and equally.

I have no "special interest" groups or individuals backing me.

If I am elected I will work for whatever is good for the county from the day I take office until the day I leave.

FIRE VICTIMS THANKS

Editor The Star: When one watches the coals grow cold and black and realizes this is all that remains of ones home, their unreplaceable treasures, their accumulations of all the years they have been married, the things they have saved for and worked hard for and even some things they still owe for, their first thoughts are that they have lost everything in this world that was dear to them.

Such were our feelings last Wednesday night, July 22, when our home at Patmos was destroyed by fire.

We were thankful, of course, that no one was hurt. We knew we still had each other and our two children, we knew we were young and yes, we could start over again, so we counted our blessings. What we did not realize was the true value of friends and neighbors, and even strangers who were anxious to help us get started again. The people of Hope, Patmos and the surrounding communities are as kind and generous as our watermelons are large. The spirit of love and helpfulness is as beautiful as is our own Miss Arkansas. Is it any wonder then that Hope Arkansas should be the home of Miss Congeniality. How can we express our gratitude and appreciation in any way other than simply saying Thank You to our many friends-thank you for the shower at the Youth Center, for the Round-up Cake Walk, thank you Guardsmen, who made up the generous monetary offering and

Bias Cited in Draft Lottery

By STAN BENJAMIN

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's first post-World War II draft lottery was designed to assure that "each man has an equal chance of being selected first, selected second, or not selected at all," Defense Secretary Melvin Laird said last November.

But the final tabulation shows that men born in the last half of the year—and especially those born in November and December—bore a heavier draft burden than individuals whose birthdays fell in the first six calendar months.

The results became known Thursday after it was announced that men in the 1970 draft pool whose draft numbers are 196 or higher probably would escape induction into the armed forces.

The 366 days of the year were ranked in order as pulled from the bowl last Dec. 1. The dates were matched with a registrant's birthday to determine the order of call.

Critics have charged the drawing was biased against the last six months of the year. They said the capsules containing the dates were insufficiently mixed before being drawn from the bowl.

Distributed equally, that would mean that 16 or 17 of the 30 or 31 days in each month (15 or 16 days in February) should correspond to draftable numbers.

A breakdown of the December lottery, however, discloses the drawing assigned numbers below 195 to:

—26 of the 31 days in December.

—22 of the 30 days of November.

—19 of the 30 days in September; 19 of August's 31 days; and 18 of the 31 in July.

Lottery numbers under 195 went to no more than 14 birth-days in any of the first six months, with a low of only 10 vulnerable days in March.

For its second lottery, held last July 1, the Selective Service devised a complex procedure to ensure random mixing at every step.

The results, assigning numbers to men who turn 19 during 1970, have not been challenged.

The second lottery also shows wide variations, but the highs and lows do not appear to cluster in any regular pattern.

There has been no estimate how many men will be drafted in 1971 or how high up the list the draft may reach next year.

But if 195 were taken as the hypothetical ceiling, November would only have 18 low-numbered days and December would have 17.

A breakdown of the remaining months in the second lottery using the 195 cutoff point shows that January would have 24 low-numbered days; February, 12; March, 16; April, 16; May, 16; June, 14; July, 18; August, 14; September, 11, and October, 19.

Watts Residents Say Little Has Changed in 5 Years

By GENE HANDSAKER

Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Five years ago thousands of blacks vented fury against a host of frustrations in the massive Watts riots. Now the people of the area say little has changed.

An investigative committee made many recommendations. There were scores of government, private and self-help projects—many of them shortlived.

In some areas there has been genuine progress. A new hospital is being built, there are more black-owned businesses and police-community relations efforts have been intensified. But successes haven't been dramatic or eye-catching.

In appearance, the city's south-central district is five years shabbier, except for scattered apartment-commercial construction. And among the people, the same old frustrations are cited.

The riots that began five years ago next Tuesday lasted six days, cost 34 lives and $40 million in property damage. A governor's commission said that during the worst three days 10,000 Negroes took to the streets, looting, beating whites, overturning and burning cars, shooting at police and firemen.

"Nobody gave a damn," a 21-year-old Negro recalls. "They felt they were getting back for all the bad things done to them for so long."

Says City Councilman Thomas Bradley, a Negro: "With the right ingredients Watts will explode into another disruption. The people in Watts feel people outside the ghetto don't give a damn about them."

"People in Watts aren't bubbling over with enthusiasm and optimism, but I doubt there'll be another 1965," says John Mack, Urban League director. "The blacks know they're the ones who got shot; that it's their homes that get burned down. However, this doesn't mean there won't be trouble."

The governor's commission blamed the riots on, among other things, unemployment, inadequate schooling for disadvantaged children, hatred of police, poor public transportation, consumer exploitation and inferior housing.

The riots—with their 1,032 injured, 3,952 arrests and more than 600 buildings set afire or looted—involved only about 2 per cent of the city's Negro population. They erupted across 46.5 square miles of south Los Angeles but took their name from the core, Watts.

Today the congested ghetto heart, named for a man who operated a livery business there in the 1880s, looks peaceful in the summer sun.

Along the main street old men gossip from upturned soft-drink crates. Younger ones play cards or drink wine beneath the so-called "freedom tree," a shady maple where, some say, the 1965 holocaust was first discussed.

Workmen erected colorful booths in Will Rogers Park for the Watts Summer Festival now under way. Since the riots it has been an annual event, with beauty contest, rodeo, carnival rides, art displays, films, and other programs to show "the pride of a people."

The festival drew crowds of fewer than 500 persons during the early days, despite the appearance of Mayor Sam Yorty and other officials.

The Watts Writers Theater—an outgrowth of novelist Budd Schulberg's post-riot workshop for aspiring writers—advertises director Harry Dolan's latest play, "The Iron Hand of Nat Turner," a festival event.

But residents say underneath nothing much really has changed.

"Charcoal Alley"—as the main business street, East 103rd was called when much of it lay in ashes—is still shabby and undeveloped.

A new housing project will employ 400 and an industrial park 2,400.

"That's great," says Dolan, "but the unemployment rate here is higher than anywhere else in America."

The U.S. Department of Labor Statistics reports that unemployment in the Watts area has increased 61 per cent since the 1965 riot, while the rate for the Los Angeles area over-all has declined. The latest figures showed unemployment in Watts at 16.2 per cent.

McClerkin Says Faubus Main Target

By ROBERT SHAW

Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The rhetoric in the gubernatorial campaign heated up this week, but added little in the development of issues.

State Rep. Hayes McClerkin of Texarkana opened up on former Gov. Orval E. Faubus, who McClerkin considers to be the chief issue in the Democratic campaign.

Jim Malone of Lonoke, in turn, blasted both McClerkin and Faubus, saying they were "fake foes," members of the same "vicious political machine" who were locked in "mock combat."

Dale Bumpers of Charleston promptly warned that the voters should beware of gubernatorial candidates who "dwell on the shortcomings of others" while not offering positive programs of their own.

The week's activities held promise that what has been a lackluster campaign is warming up.

With 13 persons in the race, some of the candidates are looking for something with which to come forth that would clearly distinguish their candidacies from those of the others and give them an edge in their competition for the voters' attention and for newspaper and radio and television play.

"I want to go in where angels fear to tread," said one Democratic candidate privately.

But no one candidate has yet latched on to an issue that would mark him. The voter is confronted by a variety of candidates whose positions on most of the issues are difficult to distinguish.

The state's financial position, taxation, law and order and the state prison system, along with Faubus on the Democratic side and Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller in the Republican primary, continue to be among the dominant subjects of campaign talk.

Some of them are suspected of having become a little threadbare.

"Who's against law and order?" asks Bob Compton of El Dorado, who says he is a law and order man. "I don't know of anyone who is."

"The state prisons aren't worth two votes," says another candidate, who asked that he not be quoted by name and who continues to discuss the penitentiary as an issue.

If what is reported by several campaign headquarters on polls they have "seen" or "heard" is an accurate indication, four candidates for the Democratic nomination are clustered roughly close together behind Faubus, who is said to be the leader at this point.

Railroads Must Have Tax Dollars

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. railroad system could collapse unless taxpayers prop it up with billions of dollars, the former chief financial officers for the Penn Central has testified.

David C. Bevan told a Senate subcommittee Thursday that billions would be required to modernize the nation's railroads.

He made the statement Thursday as the Penn Central Co. reported it lost $123 million in the first half of 1970. Its rail operations reported a $141.6 million deficit.

The $123 million loss contrasted with a $26.4 million profit during the same period last year. Freight and passenger revenues climbed nearly 5 per cent, but expenses soared almost 10 per cent, the railroad said.

Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., chairman of the Senate subcommittee, asked if the days of the railroad empire were numbered.

"I think it's a possibility, unless a program is worked out very rapidly," Bevan replied.

The subcommittee is investigating government loan guarantees for the railroads.

The Nixon administration was arranging a $200 million loan guarantee for the Penn Central earlier this summer but the proposal was dropped abruptly.

Bevan served as chief financial officer of the Penn Central—the nation's largest railroad—until it filed a petition to reorganize under the bankruptcy laws June 21. The railroad is a subsidiary of the Penn Central Co.

Gore Faces Fight of Life in Tennessee

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) —

Sen. Albert Gore, an anti-Vietnam war Democrat, faces the toughest fight of his long political life against Rep. William Brock, a pro-Nixon Republican, in the Nov. 3 general election.

Gore, who calls himself the No. 1 White House target of the off-year elections, won renomination handily over four opponents in Thursday's Democratic primary.

Vice President Spiro T. Agnew already has promised to campaign for Brock who defeated cowboy singer Tex Ritter and J.D. Boles, a perennial candidate, for the GOP nomination.

Dr. Cecil Pittard of Knoxville was unopposed for the American party nomination.

Winfield Dunn, a Memphis dentist who drew heavily on hometown support, won the Republican nomination for governor in a minor upset that will pit him against Democrat John J. Hooker Jr. in the general election. Dunn's closest opponent, Nashville industrialist Maxey Jarman, refused to concede, complaining of "voting inequities" in Memphis.

The senate race will be watched nationally as an indicator of Southern support for President Nixon's Vietnam and domestic policies, both opposed by Gore and supported by Brock.

The gubernatorial race also will be a three man affair in November. Douglas Heinsohn, a textile mill executive from Sevierville, was unopposed for the American party nomination.

Gore, seeking his fourth six year Senate term after 14 years in the House, called for the "support of all Tennesseans, Democrats, Independents, Republicans" in the general election.

Rev. John Cannon of Prescott will be the evangelist at a revival to be held August 10-16 at the Central Church of Christ, 10 miles south of Hope on Highway 29.

The meetings will be held each night at 8 p.m.

Family's Reunion Day Aug. 9

Family Reunion Day, Sunday, Aug. 9,—just what is it?

It is what the name implies, a single day when members of families are urged to get together, to worship together, to eat together, to play together, to have family fellowship and enjoy being together.

At the national level Family Reunion Day is jointly sponsored by the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge and by Kiwanis International. At the local level Kiwanis Clubs throughout our country are sponsoring this Special Day, August 9th.

Kenneth Hamilton, president of the local Kiwanis Club says, "Most Americans recognize the family unit as the strongest foundation stone of our society. In the day in which we live we cannot afford to forget this truth, if we expect our country to endure."

In celebration of Family Reunion Day the local Kiwanis Club will conclude this year's Family Day activities with a family meal at Town and Country Restaurant Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. Each Kiwanian and his entire family will be attending this meeting which will take the place of the noon meeting.

THEIR POUND OF FLESH

Dear Helen: I couldn't believe a newspaper article I read recently, so I'm sending it along to prove I wasn't seeing things.

It seems a 14-year-old boy was in business for himself selling night crawlers as bait to fishermen at two cents a worm. Agents of the State Tax Commission called his home to warn that as a vendor he must have a permit, and he must also collect sales tax and turn it over to the State.

Isn't this stifling young enthusiasm? Kids should be commended for personal achievement, not red taped out of business! —IRKED

Wherefore art thou, Horatio Alger? Today, you might never make past the book-work.

On the other hand, a boy might feel more like a businessman if he observes State regulations. As a tax-paying legal vendor he can now operate a worm farm, grow his own, and even expand to mail order sales. —H.

Dear Helen: Another letter for Mrs. J. K. F. who can't make friends in a new city. In addition to saying "hello" first, with a big smile, here are some other pointers that helped me several years ago:

1. Tell people you're new. Ask advice about everything—in the market, on your block, at church, the library. People love to be helpful. You don't have to TAKE their advice, but act terribly grateful.

2. Be interested in everything. Find a hobby. In doing so, you'll probably find friends.

3. Check with the City Hall or Recreation Department for activities you can afford. Don't be embarrassed to say you have a tight budget.

4. The "Y" sponsors wives clubs. Call and inquire.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

ap television-Radio Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP) — At precisely 10:30 a.m. a chauffeured limousine swung into a parking space labeled "Doris Day" at CBS's Studio Center.

The car door opened and out tumbled three dogs, poodles in varying degrees.

Like well-trained starlets they made their way directly to a dressing room door. They were followed by a well-scrubbed, freckle-faced blonde in green shirt and shorts.

It was the start of another day's work on "The Doris Day Show," and the arrival of the star had approximately the same amount of excitement as the appearance of a secretary at her desk.

Miss Day—"Doe" to everyone from fellow players to the grips went directly to the small make-up room in one corner of her suite of rooms, pleaded for a cup of peppermint tea and started applying a light coating of makeup, designed mostly to keep the freckles from being too distracting.

The series will start its third season next month, its first as a recognized success. The series was a sharp disappointment its first year, but a major revision transformed the situation comedy from near-miss to hit in its second season—an accomplishment so rare as to be almost a television miracle.

Miss Day was eager to talk about her dogs—she has a houseful, all adopted strays, but only three like to accompany her to the studio—and the series which is undergoing further change this season.

Last season, Doris Martin, the widow she plays in the series, was permitted to leave the ranch and a uniform of blue jeans, for a secretary's job in San Francisco and a closet full of dresses. This season, she gets an apartment in town, while the two children stay on the farm.

"It's a legitimate change," she observed. "It was very difficult, traveling to and from the ranch."

Since she still plays a secretary, scripts are careful to show how she manages to have such an attractive three-room duplex with patio on a modest salary.

"I pay $150 a month rent because it's over a restaurant," she explained, "and it's a mess when I find it. Most of the improvements I make myself—as part of the shows."

Newcomers to the series this season will include Kaye Ballard and Bernie Koppell playing the couple who run the Italian restaurant, and Doris' old friend, Billy de Wolfe, her new next-door neighbor. De Wolfe always calls her "Clara," the name of the girl she played years ago in a movie called "Tea for Two" where they first met.

In addition to the series, there is an hour special on the CBS shelf awaiting a broadcast date, "The Doris Mary Anne Kappelhoff Show starring Doris Day."

"First, the special is part of my CBS commitment," she said. "Second, I don't do any singing to speak of on the show and there were literally thousands of letters asking me to sing, we put together a musical show with a little talk and pretty sets. Doris Mary Anne Kappelhoff is my real name, you know."

THE NATIONAL REPORT ON WHAT'S HAPPENING

CAT NIPS—Been about a year since we heard much from Cat Mother and the All-Night Newsboys, but they're with us again, this time with a new Polydor LP called Albion Doo-Wah. The Cat Mother style has taken a turn from early '60s rock to country rock and the change is appreciated. We especially like "Been All Around the World," "Theme from Albion Doo-Wah" and "Boonville Massacre," but the record is good listening all the way. Well worth the having.

BAD VIBES—The whole rock scene is suffering because of bad scenes by a few stars, like one Supergroup that held up a New York concert for an hour because "the vibes weren't right" to go on, then finally went out, did two numbers and quit for the night. Bad vibes again. Same guys have been known not to show up at all if the spirit doesn't grab them. Very tough on promoters and those who paid to get in when the stars can't do better than that and it seems like several of them can't.

HELP WANTED—Sidney, our usually super computer, has us messed up as far as our Project Take Time to Get Involved contest and we need your help. We're trying to send out Caravelle watches, worth $39.95, to Nancy and Joyce Sternbeck and Zoe Anne Zontek of Bethel Park, Pa., and to Dan Swift and Barbara Grider of Franklin, Pa. Trouble is we can't find the necessary addresses. So, if you'll kindly pass them along we'll get the goodies in the mail. Sorry for the hold-up.

FASHION NOTE—If you want to be with it this fall (not that you're not always with it), you'll have to wear navy blue denim pants. That's the word from Paris, where all the designers are making with the blue jeans, which, of course, you've been wearing for years now anyway. First they couldn't sell the maxi or the midi, now they're trying to take credit for jeans. Will Paris never learn?

SUMMER SCENE—Making money is a nice way to spend a summer and we know that a lot of you are doing just that. Got to be some interesting jobs, too, and we'd like to hear about them. We know of one premed student in Tennessee who made $19,000 last summer selling land (his father owns a development company) and we doubt that you can top that figure, but if you're doing (or did) something unusual this summer, we'd like to hear what it is. Fill us in and we'll have some kind of prize for the most interesting letter.

FLAT OUT—During the first week of their 3,000 mile cross-country bicycle trip, being underwritten by Pepsi, Jeff Salzman, 18, Hunter Smith, 20, and Ron Ebling, 19, all of Darien, Conn., had a total of 13 flat tires. They started in Purchase, N.Y., and hope to end up in New Port, Ore., around Sept. 1.

TV TALK—There's a TV dramatization of the trial of the Chicago Seven in the works by the BBC with Al Freeman Jr. playing Bobby Seale. Air dates are set in England, West Germany, Switzerland and Austria but nothing has been done about showing the program in the United States.

SURVEY SOUNDS — The nation's DJs, recently surveyed by Record World, picked "Sugar, Sugar" by the Archies as their favorite single of the year (guess you can get a little tone deaf playing records all day), Elvis as the top vocalist and Abbey Road as the best LP. Nobody mentioned Ronnie Milsap, which just goes to show how much they know.

PETER'S PROBLEM—Peter Townsend of The Who, the wild-mannered British group, was taken up short recently when he caused a bomb scare on a flight from Memphis to Atlanta. Seems Peter told a friend that he had heard that The Who's latest LP was going "to bomb in New York." A steward heard the bomb part and made it to the pilot, who held up the flight while the plane was searched. So remember, gang, bomb is a no-no if you're flying anywhere, unless you like handcuffs.

Another Year Before NBA-ABA Merger

CHICAGO (AP) — Congress holds the important key to the proposed merger of the two major professional basketball circuits and apparently the door to that route won't be opened for at least another year.

Walter Kennedy, commissioner of the National Basketball Association, said Thursday there is little chance this year for legislation which would allow merger with the American Basketball Association, without anti-trust complications.

"I do not contemplate that we will be able to get legislation acted upon during this session of Congress," Kennedy said after a meeting with NBA owners. "This is an election year which means a short term ... for congressmen up for re-election."

Kennedy said a bill similar to one which allowed the American and National football leagues to combine has been "roughed out" but is not ready to be introduced.

The two pro basketball leagues have been engaged in an expensive contest for talent and progress toward a solution through merger was blocked by a New York court order issued at the instance of the NBA Players Association.

Presumably, congressional action exempting the leagues from anti-trust provisions would resolve the players' suit.

In addition to outside roadblocks, the NBA owners have yet to vote in favor of merging. They did vote to seek an anti-trust exemption bill, but reports persist that some owners are opposed to combining with the ABA.

In the meantime, Kennedy sees no halt to the costly contest for top players.

In somewhat less weighty matters, the NBA owners changed the format of the league's All-Star game, to be played Jan. 12 in San Diego.

With the addition of three new clubs—Cleveland, Portland and Buffalo—the All-Star squad will consist of 14 instead of 12 players from each of the league's two conferences. Each club must have at least one, but no more than three, players on the All-Star teams.

A committee of sports reporters will select the first eight players on each All-Star squad and coaches will choose the remainder.

The owners put off for a month determining the setup for postseason playoff games. Kennedy said the next meeting would be in mid-September, probably on the West Coast.

Kennedy said the owners also heard a report on negotiations with the NBA Players Association, which have centered on minimum salary, disposition of playoff pool money and per diem player expenses.

"The owners feel encouraged by negotiations carried on so far this summer," Kennedy said, "which leads me to believe that the two groups will have total agreement within a short time."

He also said that 28 games including regular season and playoff contests will be telecast in color nationally by American Broadcasting Co.

Jacobs Loses Lead in Golf Classic

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Tommy Jacobs was cool, calm and collected after a horrendous triple bogey eight knocked him out of a shot at a course record and a commanding lead in the first round of the $150,000 American Golf Classic.

"It was just one of those things," the 35-year-old veteran said Thursday after he had lost four shots on two holes and plummeted back into a tie for second place behind leader George Archer.

Jacobs, a slim, soft-spoken veteran in a lengthy slump who last won in 1965, finished with a two-under par 68 on the tough 7,180-yard Firestone Country Club course.

He trailed Archer by one stroke and was tied for second with 41-year-old Paul Harney, now a club pro at Sutton, Mass., and only a part-time tourist.

A big group headed by host pro Bobby Nichols followed at 69. Others included Australian Bruce Crampton, Bob Goalby, John Miller, Steve Reid, Phil Rodgers, Lou Graham and Tommy Aaron.

Defending champion Ray Floyd had a 70. Gary Player had a 72, Jack Nicklaus a 73 and U.S. Open champ Tony Jacklin had 74.

Arnold Palmer and Billy Casper, the Masters champion, were not competing.

When Jacobs stood on the 16th tee, he was six under par, had not made a bogey, needed only a par in to match the record 64 on one of the most demanding courses in the United States and led the field by four strokes.

The 16th is a 625-yard par 5 with a pond guarding the green. According to Jacobs, he hit two great shots and laid up just in front of the pond, "Just where I wanted to be."

Then with a wedge shot to the green, he shunted dead right onto a gravel approach to a bridge. From there, he chipped over the green into deep rough, failed to get it out, finally reached the green in six and two-putted.

Tommy also bogeyed the next hole and fell back into the pack.

He was philosophical about it, however, shrugged and commented:

"If I don't get 'em today, I'll get 'em tomorrow."

Archer, the tallest player on the tour at six-foot-six, hasn't won since he took the Master's title in 1969.

Pirates 4-0, 8-3 Over Phillies

By MIKE RECHT

Associated Press Sports Writer
Roberto Clemente, Willie Stargell, Al Oliver, Bob Robertson ... those are the big guys in the Pittsburgh line-up. But little Fred Patek is growing. He's growing.

He stands only 5-foot-6 and weighs only 165 pounds, but the miniature shortstop had been wielding a big, big bat for the Pirates. Thursday night was a good example.

While Stargell hit two sacrifice flies and a homer, Oliver drove in four runs with a double and a triple and Robertson hit a three-run homer, Patek was up front setting them up with runs batted in situation. He ripped a double, a triple and four singles, and walked once, and scored five runs.

The result: The Pirates swept a doubleheader from the Philadelphia Phillies 4-0 and 8-3, and increased their national League East lead to 2½ games over the New York Mets, who lost to St. Louis 3-0.

In other games, the Chicago Cubs moved within two games of the Mets with a 4-2 victory over Montreal, Houston beat San Diego 8-5 and Atlanta downed Los Angeles 4-1 in night games. San Francisco hammered Cincinnati 9-3 in the afternoon.

In the American League, Cleveland stopped Baltimore 4-0 and then lost 7-1, the New York Yankees topped Detroit 7-5 after losing 2-1, Kansas City defeated Oakland 5-3, Washington trimmed Boston 5-2, the Chicago White Sox whipped Milwaukee 7-3 and Minnesota nipped California 2-1 in 14 innings.

Patek's mini explosion—he had two hits in the opener and four in the nightcap—gave him 20 hits in his last 39 at bats, raising his average from .228 to .301 as an occasional replacement for Gene Alley, who is suffering from a sore heel.

He still remembers the last time he got four hits in one game—it was June 2, 1968, with Columbus of the International League. He was called up to the Pirates the next day.

Patek, who has played in only 57 games this season with 153 at bats after hitting .255 in 1968 and then .239 as the injured Alley's replacement last year, was moved into the leadoff spot, with Matty Alou dropped to second.

He singled in the first inning of the first game and scored on Oliver's double, and then he doubled in the eighth and scored on Alou's single. It was more than enough for Dock Ellis, 12-8, who stopped the Phillies on six hits in outdueling Jim Bunning, 8-11.

In the nightcap, Patek opened with a walk and scored on Stargell's sacrifice fly, singled in the third and scored on Oliver's triple before Robertson unloaded in the inning. He added a single in the fourth, then tripled in the seventh and scored on Alou's single, and singled again in the eighth.

Bruce Dal Canton, 7-1, stopped the Phillies this time on six hits, winning his third game in four starts since leaving the bullpen.

"It was my best night in the majors," Patek smiled, and it might have earned him a reprieve from the bench. Alley was scheduled to return against the Mets today in the start of a four-game weekend series.

The Mets came to Pittsburgh after having ace Tom Seaver, 16-6, beaten by Nelson Briles, 4-3, the Cardinals' ninth victory in 11 games which moved them ahead of the Phillies into fourth place.

Briles' seven-hitter with nine strikeouts snapped Seaver's nine-game winning streak as the Cardinals scored on a double steal in the first inning and then rapped four hits for two runs in the fourth.

Ken Holtzman, 12-9, flirted with the second no-hitter of his career and the first major league gem ever in Canada when he silenced Montreal without a hit for seven innings. But John Boccabella opened the eighth with a single and Adolfo Phillips later singled him home.

Bob Bailey added a double in the ninth, and scored on two cap of a bee sting on his right hand to make the turn in 33, two under par, matched two early birdies with a pair of bogeys, then assumed full control with a nine-foot putt on the 17th, just about the time Jacobs met disaster on the 16th.

Ron Santo led the Cubs' attack with two singles, a double and his 15th homer, driving in one run and scoring three.

Jack Billingham ran his record to 10-4 with relief behind Houston's 12-hit attack, which included three hits each by Bob Watson and Cesar Cedeño. Felix Millan stroked three singles and two doubles and drove in two runs, leading Atlanta past the Dodgers. Jim Nash, 11-4, with help from Hoyt Wilhelm, won his first game since July 3.

San Francisco exploded for seven runs in the first inning, with Willie McCovey hitting his 28th homer with two on and Frank Johnson adding another three-run clout. Tony Perez hit his 32nd for the Reds.

Brown Helps Yankees to Second Place

By ED SCHUYLER JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer
Detroit's Ike Brown helped carry the New York Yankees back into second place in the American League East—unintentionally, of course.

Brown raced over and got his glove on a ball hit to left field by left-handed hitting Bobby Murcer Thursday night. But Brown's momentum carried him against the fence and the ball fell into the stands for a two-run homer.

The play came in the fifth inning of the second game of a doubleheader and gave New York a 5-5 tie and the Yankees went on to win 7-5 and move back into second place ahead of the Tigers.

Detroit had taken over second briefly by winning the opener 2-1.

Elsewhere in the American League, Minnesota edged California 2-1 in 14 innings. Cleveland blanked Baltimore 4-0 before the Orioles won 7-1, Kansas City edged Oakland 5-3, Washington topped Boston 5-2 and the Chicago White Sox took Milwaukee 7-3.

In the National League, St. Louis poled the New York Mets 3-0, San Francisco walloped Cincinnati 9-3, the Chicago Cubs whipped Montreal 4-2, Pittsburgh swept Philadelphia 4-0 and 8-3, Houston outlasted San Diego 8-6 and Atlanta tripped Los Angeles 4-1.

The Yankees scored the winning run in the nightcap in the sixth inning. Jerry Kenney doubled, moved to third on Gene Michael's bunt single and scored as Thurman Munson bounced into a double play.

Roy White hit a three-run homer for New York, while Dalton Jones belted a solo shot and Mickey Stanley cracked a pair of run-scoring singles for Detroit.

Stanley scored both runs in Detroit's opening-game victory. He tripled and scored on Mel Stottlemyre's wild pitch in the third and double and scored on Jim Northrup's sacrifice fly in the fifth. Munson singled in the Yankees run.

George Mitterwald's first pitch homer off Paul Doyle leading off the 14th beat California for Minnesota, which had tied the game when Mel Queen hit Harmon Killebrew with the bases loaded.

Bill Voss' homer in the eighth off Bill Zeep, who had a no-hitter for five innings, gave California a 1-0 lead.

The Packers showed off newly enlarged Lambeau Field Thursday night and 12,239 were on hand to watch Green Bay scrimmage under the lights. There were repeated bursts of applause for Mike McCoy, the team's No. 1 draft choice from Notre Dame. The giant McCoy repeatedly bulled his way into the offensive backfield from his defensive tackle spot.

The Buffalo Bills said they'd play for the first time since 1961 without Al Bemiller at center. The veteran Bemiller, who has started in 173 consecutive exhibition and regular season games, will be on the sidelines because of an injured knee.

The injury list also included: Greg Larson, the Giants' regular center, sidelined for two weeks with an eye injury; defensive end Chuck Walker of St. Louis, a fractured middle finger of the left hand which will sideline him for several weeks; and Los Angeles Ram running back Larry Smith, a sprained ankle which will probably keep him out of Saturday night's game with the Cleveland Browns.

John Adams, in 1800, was the first U.S. president to occupy the White House.

Ky. Derby Winner in Comeback

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer
Dust Commander, surprise winner of the Kentucky Derby, but a disappointment in the Preakness, starts a comeback Saturday in the $100,000 Monmouth Invitational Handicap, feature of the national horse racing program this weekend.

The Robert Lehmann-owned colt will be pitted against 10 rivals in the 1¼-mile test for 3-year-olds that highlights the closing day of the 1970 meeting at Monmouth Park.

Elsewhere there is the $50,000 Whitney Stakes on the first Saturday of the Saratoga meeting: the $50,000 William DuPont Jr.

Handicap at the closing of Delaware Park; the $50,000 Cotillion Handicap at Liberty Bell; the $30,000 Round Table Handicap at Arlington Park; the $21,000 General Green Handicap at Rockingham and the $20,000 Escondido Handicap at Del Mar.

Dust Commander, who hasn't raced since his ninth-place finish in the Preakness May 16, has a new trainer and a new jockey.

Ike Mourar has replaced Don Combs as trainer and Carlos H. Marquez will be in the saddle instead of Mike Manganello.

Dust Commander, who will carry 122 pounds, has been working out impressively, but Well Mannered, who has won five in a row is likely to go off the favorite at 121 pounds.

Others trying for the first prize of $65,000 are Corn Off The Cob, the top weight at 123, Twice Worthy, 117; Robin's Bug, 116; Rollicking, 115; Jaradara, 114; Plenty Old, 114; Admiral's Shield, 113; Roman Scout, 113 and Look Of The Tudors, 108.

Judgable, the long-shot winner of the Dwyer, passed up the Monmouth to run in the Whitney at Saratoga. Other probables in the 1¼-mile at the Spa include Red Reality, Terrible Tiger, Dewan, Pleasure Seeker, Gladwin and Hydrologist.

Lombardi May Not Be at Training Camp

By TOM SEPPY
Associated Press Sports Writer
CARLSLE, Pa. (AP) — Vince Lombardi isn't present in the Washington Redskins training camp this summer. He might not even be with the team this season.

But he is here at Dickinson College in many ways, due to the efforts of Bill Austin, one of his assistants who was named interim coach of the Redskins.

Lombardi lies in Georgetown University Hospital in Washington where he underwent two operations in exactly a month.

On June 17, the 57-year-old coach had a tumor, said to be non-malignant at the time, removed from his intestines by a six-man team headed by Robert J. J. Coffey, a professor of surgery at the hospital.

One month later he underwent another operation, but no details have been released as to its nature. For a few days, the Redskins issued reports indicating Lombardi "was resting comfortably."

That was the same report issued by a team spokesman Thursday night. There have been rumors, but unconfirmed, that Lombardi's condition is grave.

Austin, an assistant to Lombardi at Green Bay from 1959 through 1964 before becoming an assistant at Los Angeles and then head coach of Pittsburgh, was named interim coach July 17.

Austin is an attentive student in the Lombardi school, where the emphasis is on execution and repetition until everything is done virtually as second-nature.

His organization leaves nothing to chance, as per Lombardi's teachings.

British Girls Hopeful to Win Cup

NEWTON, Mass. (AP) — British amateur champion Dinah Oxley, 21, led a squad of young ladies from Great Britain and Ireland against favored Americans today in the opening of the 16th Curtis Cup golf matches at Brae Burn Country Club.

Hopeful of taking a cue from Britain's Tony Jacklin, who won the U.S. Open championship this year, the girls from the British Isles were out to end an old hex in the two-day competition.

The U.S. squad was one of the youngest ever, with six of eight regulars 22 or under, but packed plenty of pressure experience and was favored to dominate the lasses from across the Atlantic once again.

Since the biennial event was started in 1932, the British squad had won only two matches, in 1952 and '56. It has managed two ties, the last in 1958 on the same Brae Burn course.

The Americans won the 1968 Curtis Cup 10½-7½ at Royal County Down, Ireland.

The U.S. squad this year is led by Jane Bastanchury, 22, of

Broadway Joe Demanding More Money

NEW YORK (AP) — Joe Namath, a center of controversy on and off the football field, was reported today to be demanding more money to play again this season for the New York Jets.

That was the interpretation given to a statement by Phil Iselin, president of the club, following a Thursday night meeting with the star quarterback who has been AWOL from the Jets' training camp after finishing a movie.

"We have met with Joe Namath in an effort to resolve some requests Joe has made," Iselin said. "While there has been no resolution we are still discussing those requests with him."

Before the meeting, the New York Times quoted Namath as saying, "I don't want to play football."

Insiders expressed the opinion this was one of Namath's moves for a new contract at higher pay.

Namath's current contract, believed to be for $100,000 yearly, has two years to run, plus his option year.

Earlier Iselin had talked to the Jet players in camp at Hempstead, N.Y., and asked them, "Don't be too quick to condemn. Give a man a chance."

This was a reference to Namath who has been criticized by the players for his failure to report.

Namath said he has been beset by "problems which are dwarfing my mental state."

The current economic situation is known to have affected some of Namath's investments. The colorful former University of Alabama star from Beaver Falls, Pa., seemed in good spirits before his night meeting with Iselin.

Arkansas 2-0 Over Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Don Rose hurled a three-hitter as the Memphis Blues shut out the Texas League Eastern Division leading Arkansas Travelers 2-0 Thursday night.

Rose, who increased his record to 6-7, struck out five and went the distance for the Blues. John Schroepel, got the loss. He's now 3-1.

Curt Brown smacked a homer over the 380 mark in the second inning. A single, an infield out and a run-scoring single by Chico Diaz gave Memphis a security run in the eighth.

Miss Haynie Is Favorite in LPGA Open

ATLANTA (AP) — Tour veteran Sandra Haynie of Fort Worth, Tex., is considered the favorite today in the $20,000 Ladies Professional Golf Association resumes its 1970 tour after a two-week break.

Miss Haynie, winner of tournaments earlier this year at Raleigh, N.C., and Shreveport, La., would take over the lead in official $3,000 first prize. So far, she has won $19,911 which is second only to the $20,165 winnings of Kathy Whitworth.

The 54-hole tournament will be played over the 6,300-yard, par 73 Indians Hills Country Club course, a layout with narrow fairways that should help the accurate-shooting Miss Haynie.

Miss Whitworth hasn't won since the Orange Blossom Classic in Florida last March, but has built her money lead by finishing well in most tournaments.

Shirley Englehorn, fourth in earnings with $17,702, will be going after her fifth tour victory of the year. She has won tournaments at St. Louis, Win-

Tennis Pro Says He's Lucky Loser

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP) — Jaime Fillol, 24, of Chile figures he's "a lucky loser." He got into the $50,000 U.S. Pro Tennis Championships on the luck of a draw and now is assured his top pay day.

Fillol and Davis Cup teammate Pat Cornejo decided to try to qualify for the rich tournament at Longwood just last Friday while they were playing in Indianapolis.

There were five spots open and the qualifying was set for Saturday. However, the matches were postponed until Sunday and Fillol and Cornejo decided to make the trip here.

Cornejo won a qualifying spot, assuring himself of $350 as a first round singles loser. Fillol was defeated, but he was lucky. The fifth and final berth in the field of 32 was filled by a draw from the hat. Jaime was the winner.

Cornejo bowed out in the opening round, but Fillol defeated Tom Gorman of Seattle, Wash., in a bitter struggle. Then, the son of a Chile government attorney, assured himself of $1,200 in singles by advancing to the quarter-finals with a stunning upset Thursday.

"This is my best win," Fillol said after a 4-6, 7-5, 6-3 victory over Clark Graebner, who ousted Wimbledon champion and top-seeded John Newcombe in the first round. "I thought I had a chance, but not a good one, against Graebner."

Fillol seeks another upset tonight in a quarter-final meeting with sixth-seeded Roy Emerson tonight.

In other quarter-finals, favorite Rod Laver, bidding for his sixth U.S. pro championship in seven appearances at Longwood, meets Australian countryman Ray Ruffels, South Africa's Cliff Drysdale plays Jan Kodes of Czechoslovakia, and fourth-seeded Tony Roche of Australia plays eighth-seeded Arthur Ashe of Gum Spring, Va.

Drysdale turned in another stunning upset Thursday in ousting third-seeded Ken Rosewall of Australia 6-4, 7-6. Rosewall's elimination left only four of the eight seeded players still in action.

Coach Can't Decide on Lineup

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Ray Brown, head coach of the West All-Star football team, may have to borrow from Otto Graham before deciding on his starting quarterback for Saturday's high school All-Star game.

Graham couldn't choose between Mike Phillips of Purdue and Dennis Shaw of San Diego State as starting quarterback for the recent college All-Star game, so he flipped a coin shortly before game time to select the starter.

Brown can't decide between Jon Sherry of Springdale and Johnny Mack of Fayetteville. "Both of them are excellent athletes and leaders," Brown said. "We're going to go right up to the last moment. It will almost take a flip of a coin before we decide."

Sherry, a 175-pounder, led Springdale to the AAA West championship, passing for more than 1,600 yards and 14 touchdowns. Mack, a 200-pounder, is more durable and can also throw.

The West team started with five quarterbacks, but three — Rocky Porter of North Little Rock, Barry Lunney of Fort Smith Northside and Lewis Pryor of Camden Fairview — have been moved to the defensive secondary.

Brown says he hopes the West can halt the East's offense, which features highly touted running back Terry McFarland of West Memphis.

"We can't stunt on them, so we've got to depend on our line-backers," Brown said. "Still, I don't know you can stop a super-star."

The football game is scheduled for 8 p.m. in War Memorial Stadium. Johnnie Brnett, head of the Arkansas Activities Association, expects a crowd of 20,000 or more. He says he expects several thousand to come out to see the new AstroTurf and lighting at the stadium.

The All-Star basketball game will be played in Barton Coliseum, beginning at 2 p.m. Bobby Reese, coach of the East basketball team, says his squad has its work cut out on defense.

"We have a lot of work to do on defense, especially when you consider that we are going to have to stop the top scorer in AAA — Ed Tatum of Fort Smith Northside, the top scorer in AAA — Jim Hamilton of Fort Smith Southside and the top scorer in AA — Freddie Jones of Malvern," Reese said.

The West probably has the three best one-on-one players in the state in Hamilton, Jones and Shady Patton — Camden Fairview," Reese said. "We're just going to roll up our sleeves and do the best we can."

The East may have an advantage on the backboards with 6-9 Lonnie Webster of Searcy, 6-5 Sam Witherspoon of Altheimer and 6-4 Schuler Rowland of Marvel.

"This could be the best All-Star basketball game ever," Reese said.

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Richard Crawford of Bella Vista, Ark., shot a one-over-par 74 in the first round of the American Golf Classic here Thursday.

R. H. Sikes of Springdale and Miller Barber of Texarkana each had a 75.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

"Lead" pencils are actually composed of a mixture of graphite and clay. The World Almanac notes that graphite was discovered in Bavaria around 1400, and was originally called plumbago, meaning "acting like lead." The amount of clay mixed with graphite determines the hardness of the pencil.

Don't Swear!

It's a Bible command... a common-sense law of life. "Thou shalt not take the name of The Lord Thy God in vain." THEN WHY DO YOU DO IT??? Careless habit? Limited vocabulary? Calloused soul? ... JUST WHY DO YOU DO IT? "The Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain." Man, too, will hold you guilty. The members of your family, — the fellows in your office, — the stranger on the street ... none of them like it! Your family deserves better of you. Your neighbors expect better of you. God requires better of you. Go to church and break the swearing habit. Learn to respect and honor and reverence God's name. Please don't swear!

Power to Compel Witnesses to Testify Challenged

By LAWRENCE L. KNUSTON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — For the first time in 30 years the Senate investigations subcommittee faces a direct legal threat to its power to compel hostile witnesses to testify.

Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., called the situation intolerable and said Thursday it may result "in a confrontation between the legislative and judiciary branches of the government."

The U.S. Court of Appeals in the District of Columbia issued a preliminary injunction barring the committee from forcing Thomas W. Sanders of Berkeley, Calif., to testify in a probe of terror bombing.

The committee sought to question Sanders about his alleged connection with publications advocating sabotage and guerrilla warfare and giving

LET'S REFLECT: Who gossips to you will gossip of you.—Selected from Apples of Gold.

Rev. Wynn's commentary continued from last week's publication. Does back to school mean advancement for your child?

This week we are writing a brief comment on youth attitudes. We hope that each youth will read this article and contact other youth who you feel could have missed reading it.

Does back to school mean advancement to you? Whether you are in elementary, junior high, or senior high school or even if you are seeking a Bachelor's Degree in college, your attitude can spell the difference in simply attending school or really getting an education.

Today's concentrated technological society in which we live and the complex innovation system of rapid change increases the many fold value of second, minute, day and year we live. Therefore one's life appreciates chronology automatically. You see, three quarters of a century ago, one minister, one teacher, or one politician would do well to speak to one million people in his life time, especially in rural, remote and small city areas, but to day, almost from any point on this planet in a moment's time, one minister may preach to the world.

When you lose one minute in study today, that is a tremendous loss. Your attitude will almost every time determine whether you lose time or whether you use your time in the most profitable manner.

According to current statistics, the federal government appropriates more money for education than any other services in this nation, second only to national defense. So education is very expensive.

It does not seem fair nor even sensible for parents, citizens, and the government to spend time, money, and energy on youth who disobey their parents, disrespect their teachers, and fail to apply themselves in the study of prescribed courses.

Youth who riot, speak vulgar language, curse society, criticize the curriculum, motivate dissension against the establishment which has given them all that they have, will not advance, but only go back to school.

The cold fact is that if people of a generation ago on back had had your opportunity, in school, they would not have a chip on their shoulders, and be angry with the world from their parents on up. They would not require the police, army regiments and county and school officials to enforce discipline on a school campus.

The United State of America is the greatest nation on this planet and the public school system is attempting to prepare you to properly give of your best to this nation and through her unique citizenship heritage, reap the highest attainable advantages.

It would be a blessing to this nation, to the world, and most of all to each of you students who will go back to school; to go with the attitude to learn all you can and apply yourself to decent, wholesome christian and natural principles identifiable with the best in our civilization.

bomb-making instructions. Sanders' lawyers contend forcing Sanders to testify about the articles would violate the guarantee of freedom of the press. A hearing on the restraining order is scheduled Monday. McClellan said the subcommittee investigation has painted a grim picture of a wave of terrorism that he said threatens the nation's security. He listed more than 5,000 bombings in the last 18 months which killed 43 persons and caused more than $25 million in damage.

"These statistics call upon us to act swiftly and forcefully to bring abruptly to a halt the savage assaults upon our system of law and order," McClellan said. "We must act, or we will fall victim to the mob."

He said his subcommittee's power to shed light on bombing and organized crime is endangered by the Court of Appeals decision.

He noted subpoenas similar to the one issued Sanders have been served hundreds of times. This instance, he added, is the first time the subcommittee's power has been challenged successfully in court.

Coach Not Concerned Over Kapp

MANKATO, Minn. (AP) — Bud Grant, Minnesota Vikings' coach, isn't overly concerned about the possible loss of his No. 1 quarterback, Joe Kapp.

"Players come and go," Grant said Thursday. "You can't call off the season if your quarterback goes down."

Kapp is seeking a five-year contract for $1.25 million, while the Vikings have offered him $100,000 a year for three years. The Vikings say they will not meet Kapp's demands, and Kapp's attorney has rejected the Viking offer.

The impasse prompted John Elliot Cook, Kapp's attorney, to say Thursday that, "The Vikings are out of the picture now."

But Cook had no comment when asked if negotiations had started with any other pro football team.

There was a general feeling among Vikings veterans that Kapp would eventually come to terms with the Vikings.

Kapp came out of the Canadian Football League and signed with the Vikings just before the 1967 season. The Vikings had an 0-4 record when he was given his first starting assignment. He led the team to a 10-7 victory over Green Bay, and Minnesota was 3-4-3 the rest of the season under Kapp.

The Vikings won the Central Division title the next year with an 8-6 record and notched a 12-2 mark last year in winning the league title.

Five Seeded Players Eliminated

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — The three top-ranked players made it past Thursday's round of the U.S. Amateur Clay Tennis Championships, but the other five seeded players did not.

Zan Guerry, first-ranked player from Lookout Mountain, Tenn., breezed to an easy 6-1, 6-2 victory over Mike Kriess of Los Angeles.

Second-seeded Bob McKinley of St. Ann, Mo. made it past Poncho Walthall of San Antonio, Tex., 10-8, 6-4, and Roscoe Tanner of Lookout Mountain, third-favored player, defeated Stan Passarelli of San Juan, P.R., 8-6, 6-4.

Eighth-seeded Steven Krulvitz of Baltimore came the closest to staying in the tournament. He dumped Lito Alvares of Santa Monica, Calif., 7-5 in their first set, but lost the next two, 13-15 and 2-6.

Fourth-seeded Dick Stockton of Garden City, N.Y., lasted three sets against John Gardner of Australia. Gardner won the match, 6-2 7-9, 6-2.

Tommy Leonard, fifth-seed, of Los Angeles, fell to Marcello Lara of Mexico 6-3, 3-6, 2-6, while Modesto Vasquez of Argentina overthrew sixth-rated Charley Owens of Tuscaloosa, Ala., 6-0, 6-3.

Haroun Rahim, a Pakistani who resides in Los Angeles, defeated seventh-seeded Mike Machetts of Belvedere, Calif., 6-4, 6-2.

Mansfield Wants ICC Abolished

By JOHN KAMPS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield called today for the abolishment of the Interstate Commerce Commission, charging the agency has become too industry-oriented to protect the public's interest.

The Montanan said in a prepared Senate speech that some of ICC's activities should be discontinued and others incorporated into an agency in the Department of Transportation.

Mansfield accused the ICC of failing to protect the public's interest in regulating rail commerce, especially in Montana and other sparsely populated states of the West.

"Passenger train service is deteriorating rapidly, railroad corporations are ignoring their public responsibilities, the consumer is receiving no consideration in freight rate proceedings, and the regulation of rail car orders and the boxcar shortage are completely out of hand," Mansfield said.

Railroads provided excellent passenger service in this country for many years, Mansfield noted.

"But in the face of modern methods, the need for new equipment and modernized management," he said, "the ICC has allowed the railroad giant to retreat from their position of responsibility in this area to concentrate on hauling freight."

Boxcar shortages have plagued shippers of Montana and other Western states for several decades, Mansfield said.

"What was once a seasonal situation is now with us constantly and the Western railroads are unable to give service at peak periods to the grain and lumber industries," he said.

The Press Sheds Light

The news media has been undergoing harsh criticism recently so it's refreshing to note one staunch defender among public officials in Washington.

We concur with the remarks of Kenneth A. Cox, a member of the Federal Communications Commission, who reminded a New Orleans audience that "the news media have not caused the war or created poverty. They are performing a vital function by throwing light on these problem areas."

Cox said that "those who attack the news media for reporting bad news undermine freedom and resemble young critics they often criticize." He deplored what he called "broad attacks" and "broad statements" by critics of news media. He said that there is some validity in Vice-President Spiro Agnew's charges, "but basically I think it is very dangerous for high government officials to make such broad statements."

Cox is right. It would be ridiculous to claim that the press is perfect or that it should be exempt from any criticism. Newspapers are as different as the individuals who operate them and individuals who make no mistakes seldom accomplish anything worthwhile.

But, critics should be aware of the fact that when they make broad and often baseless attacks upon the news media, they are in effect attacking their own interests and the public's right to information. So far as newspapers are concerned, when it comes to both good and bad news, never before have readers had access to so much information. — Houston (tex.) Chronicle

McClerkin Scoffs 'Fake' Rumor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Hayes McClerkin, a Democratic candidate for governor, says that an accusation by James Malone Jr. of Lonoke that McClerkin and former Gov. Orval Faubus were "fake foes" was "non-sense."

McClarkin's campaign headquarters issued the one-word statement early today.

Malone, who is also seeking the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, had charged in a televised speech earlier this week that Faubus and McClerkin were members of the same "vicious machine."

Malone said Thursday that if Faubus and McClerkin did not reply to the charges he would hold a news conference Monday to discuss the issue further.

Faubus, also a Democratic gubernatorial candidate, had said earlier that there was "no basis" for the charge.

Judge Kills School Board Zone Plan

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — U.S. District Court Judge J. Smith Henley Thursday struck down the Little Rock School Board's revised geographic attendance zone desegregation plan.

Henley said the plan did not meet federal guidelines as he understands them. He gave the board until Aug. 10 to submit a new plan. A new hearing will be held on the plan next week.

The school board revised its plan after the 8th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals ruled May 13 that the one used during the 1969-70 school year was "constitutionally infirm."

School Superintendent Floyd Parsons said the board had not prepared an alternate plan but that a plan would be submitted before the deadline.

Henley said that "in a way it's an exercise in futility" for him to rule in the Little Rock case until the U.S. Supreme Court hands down some guidelines defining a "unitary school system."

Murder Photo Too Much for Witness

By LINDA DEUTSCH
Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — With a gasping cry of "Ohhh," Linda Kasabian buried her head in her hands and sobbed after Charles Manson's attorney thrust in front of her a color picture of actress Sharon Tate in death—her nearly nude, pregnant body bathed in blood.

Court was hastily recessed Thursday after the petite witness was led from the stand weeping.

"She was terribly distraught," said Ronald Goldman, one of Mrs. Kasabian's attorneys. "We took her upstairs to lie down and put a cold compress on her head to try to calm her down."

Irving Kanarek, representing the shaggy-haired clan leader on trial in the slayings of Miss Tate and six others, pulled out the photograph while cross-examining Mrs. Kasabian, the state's star witness.

Kanarek was asking what Mrs. Kasabian had seen when she looked into a window of Miss Tate's home.

"I show you..." said Kanarek as he flashed the photo in front of Mrs. Kasabian. He got no further. The witness recoiled, shifting in her chair and turning her head away. Then she broke down.

The picture showed the blonde Miss Tate wearing bikini pants and a bra, lying on the living room floor in front of the couch. The prosecution said the angle of the picture was meant to show her 16 stab wounds.

The photo, part of material the prosecution said it planned to present later, had not been entered in evidence. A prosecutor told newsmen he had not shown the photo to Mrs. Kasabian because "she is a sensitive girl" and there was no reason to do so because the state says she never entered the house where Miss Tate's body was found.

Attorneys for Mrs. Kasabian, 21-year-old mother of two, protested to the judge. In a conference with defense attorneys and prosecutors in the judge's chambers, Goldman alleged that Kanarek had no question to ask relating to the picture, but "did it for no other purpose than to cause my client serious distress."

Goldman said later the judge ruled that in the future, before any exhibit is shown to a witness, the state will be given the chance to object.

Asked later why he took the photo out of a folder to show it to Mrs. Kasabian, Kanarek would say only, "I believe anyone should be able to see a public record."

Also on trial with Manson and Miss Krenwinkel are two other women followers of Manson—Susan "Sadie" Atkins, 21, and Leslie Van Houten, 22.

Bloodmobile Will Visit Hope Monday

Hempstead County had its first plus year in the blood program in the last six years when residents of the county gave more blood than they used during fiscal 1970.

For several years the county fell further behind giving as little as one-half to one-third of what was used. Some years Hempstead County was in danger of losing its available supply of blood until the residents responded so well in 1969-70.

As a result of the successful year the Bloodmobile will make only four trips to Hope this fiscal year instead of the six as in the past.

The next visit will be Monday, Aug. 17. The location will be the Fellowship Hall of First Presbyterian Church. The quota for this visit will be 110 pints.

Anyone from 18 to 60 is eligible to give. To insure a continuous supply of vital blood, Haskell Jones, Hempstead County Blood Chairman, urges you to give a pint of blood on this date.

Hal Boyle's Class in Double Talk Is Now in Session

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — The class in double talk is now in session.

You remember, students, what double talk is: the saying of one thing when you are actually thinking just the opposite.

This may sound like hypocrisy, and of course it is. But double talk is essential in any civilization. Without it language would disintegrate into grunt-and-sign talk.

For the benefit of newcomers here are a few examples of double talk—in each case the spoken remark is followed by what the speaker really thought:

"I certainly enjoyed your lecture, professor." — "I haven't slept better in any other class I've had this week."

"I regard golf as a mere game, not a religion. I can take it or leave it alone." — "But if I left

Arab-Israeli Talks Set for Cyprus

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

U.N. envoy Gunnar V. Jarring was seeking agreement between Arab and Israeli diplomats today on peace talk procedures, and sources in Jerusalem said the talks probably would get underway on the island of Cyprus in about 10 days.

Jarring is meeting in New York with the U.N. ambassadors from Egypt, Jordan and Israel, whose governments all have accepted the U.S. proposal for a 90-day cease-fire and indirect negotiations with Jarring as the go-between.

In Tel Aviv, Israeli defense officials met to work out details of a cease-fire plan, and reliable sources said it could take effect "in a matter of days."

The Israelis were reported giving serious consideration to a U.S. suggestion that Egypt and Israel police the cease-fire themselves. But the semi-official Cairo newspaper Al Ahran said Egypt had turned down the idea, apparently because it called for flights by Israeli reconnaissance planes over Egyptian territory as well as Egyptian flights over Israeli territory.

Informants in New York said the United States was negotiating with Arab and Israeli officials in Cairo, Jerusalem and Washington on procedures for policing the cease-fire and the ban on military buildups that is to accompany it.

There also were reports of disagreement between the Arabs and the Israelis over where the peace talks would take place and the level on which they would be conducted. One informant in New York said the Arabs wanted the talks to be held on the ambassadorial level at the United Nations, while the Israelis preferred that they be held on the foreign ministers' level in Nicosia, Cyprus.

Another source said the Israelis were open-minded on both questions but considered ambassadorial talks a break from precedent, since Jarring has dealt with foreign ministers on previous occasions.

In a statement in Cairo today, Egyptian Information Minister Mohammed Hassanein Heikal told the Palestinian guerrillas that the "total war against Israel" they seek is "an impossibility." The guerrillas have vowed to do all they can to sabotage any cease-fire.

Russia Signs Treaty With W. Germany

By JOHN BAUSMAN

associated Press Writer

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet and West German foreign ministers today initiated a new nonaggression treaty in which West Germany for the first time accepts the postwar loss of eastern German territory to Poland and the Soviet Union.

Chancellor Willy Brandt hopes the pact will open the way to improved relations with other nations of the Soviet bloc as well as with the Soviet Union.

German sources said the treaty is primarily an acceptance of the realities that have existed in Eastern Europe for many years. They said the real significance of the pact can only be measured by the future development of relations between Bonn and Moscow.

West German Foreign Minister Walter Scheel and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko put their initials to the treaty and exchanged toasts during a 45-minute ceremony at the Spiridonov reception hall. The two ministers had agreed on the text Thursday night after 11 days of negotiations in Moscow.

The treaty will be submitted Saturday to the West German Cabinet in Bonn, but there was no indication when it will be signed. Nor was it known when the text would be made public.

The treaty is a revision of a preliminary draft worked out by Gromyko and Egon Bahr, a special envoy from Brandt, in five months of talks that began last January. The pact is the keystone of Brandt's Ostpolitik, the policy of building new bridges of understanding between Bonn and Communist East Europe.

P.O. Control Turned Loose by Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has released its grip on the U.S. mails after nearly two centuries and the Post Office looks forward to shedding handicaps that prompted one postmaster general to say the department was in "a race with disaster."

More than two years after a presidential commission recommended it, and more than one year after the legislation was introduced, Congress sent Thursday to President Nixon a bill creating an independent U.S. Postal Service.

The White House hailed the occasion as "a landmark day and a landmark piece of legislation for users of the postal service and postal workers" and said Nixon would sign the measure next week.

It provides for establishment of the corporate-like federal agency within a year and a retroactive 8 per cent pay hike for postal workers. It also makes likely an increase in first class postage rates—from the six-cent to an eight-cent stamp—early next year.

The new Postal Service will be run by a nine-man, presidentially-appointed board of governors who will select a postmaster general and deputy postmaster general.

Rates will be set not by Congress as for the past 181 years, but by a five-member rate commission with the approval of the board of governors.

The postmaster general, frequently in the past a political handman of the president rather than a working head of the mail system, will be removed from the Cabinet.

The new system is designed to modernize and streamline delivery of the mails, and eventually to eliminate the huge deficits that have been an annual feature of the Post Office budget for the past 16 years.

Rains and Gusty Winds Are Forecast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More thunderstorms and gusty winds are forecast through the weekend in Arkansas, following on the heels of turbulent weather and a tornado sighting in the state Thursday.

Central Arkansas was hit Thursday with gusty winds that destroyed a house trailer at a truck stop at Mabelvale near Little Rock.

Trees and power lines also were knocked down. Damage was estimated at $35,000.

Owners of the truck stop on Interstate 30 said about 35 per cent of the roof was destroyed, two large overhead doors were damaged and a portion of the rear wall was blown away.

Tarkington was found dead last week on Arkansas 14 about two miles north of Harrisburg.

I-30 Access Road Study Here O.K'd

The Arkansas State Highway Commission, at their meeting on July 29, issued a minute order approving the 1968 traffic study made in the City of Hope, together with the 1970 supplement to the original study. Ward Goodman, director of the State Highway Department, notified Mayor Frank Douglas of the action taken by the commission.

This clears the way for an engineering study to be made on the proposed connections to Hope from the Interstate 30 interchanges, located on Highway 29 North and Highway No. 4 North. The minute order places this work in the overall plan for future state highway improvements, and points out that construction of future projects will be on the basis of need, and when funds will be available.

The 1970 supplement to the highway traffic study was prepared by the planning division of the State Highway Department, working with a 15-man committee that had been appointed by Mayor Douglas. The notice to the Mayor did not set any date for the engineering study.

Hope to Pay on Delivery, a Rate Hike

The Hope Water and Light Commission has requested the Southwest Arkansas Water District to consider a proposal to construct a water line from Millwood Dam to Hope. The request is for the water district to submit a proposal for water delivered to the city, with the water line and pumping equipment to be financed and operated by the water district, with Hope paying for the delivered water. If the pipeline can be developed by the Southwest Arkansas Water District, the City of Hope would build a treating plant and install the necessary distribution lines and additional storage inside the city.

The Water and Light Commission had studied an engineering report on the cost of building the pipe line, treating, storage and distribution lines which showed an estimated cost of around 6 million dollars. Bonding company representatives worked out a plan for financing the project with revenue bonds. Their finance plan assumed that the city would be able to get half the cost through federal aid. To finance half the cost of the project at present interest rates would require payments of about $300,000 a year, to which would be added operating costs of the pump station and water treating equipment which is estimated at $50,000 a year. The total revenue of the water department at present is $130,000 a year. To produce this much revenue, Hope's water rates would have to be increased to an almost prohibitive figure.

After this study was completed, the Water and Light Commission decided to explore the possibility of getting the water district to finance the pipe line. The water district has notified the Water and Light Commission that they will have the engineering firm of Brown & Root, who did the engineering on Millwood Dam, to work out the possibility and determine what the cost of water would be delivered to Hope. George Peck, president of the Southwest Arkansas Water District, indicated that they would have a report from Brown & Root within the next few weeks.

Says Half Truth Told by Pentagon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright has accused the Pentagon of telling "half the truth or even less than half the truth" about the Safeguard anti-missile system, creating an enormous "missile credibility gap."

The Arkansas Democrat said the Pentagon reported a panel of leading scientists found the ABM system fully qualified to protect U.S. second-strike Minuteman missile sites.

Fulbright, however, said the scientists recommended abandonment of plans to build two new Safeguard sites to protect Minuteman arsenals. The scientists urged defense planners to develop an alternative system for the sole protection of Minuteman sites, he said as he released copies of the declassified report.

Fulbright made his accusation as the Senate decided to vote next Wednesday on an amendment by Sens. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., and Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., to cut some $500 million from a pending Safeguard authorization of more than $1.3 billion. The move would curtail scheduled expansion of the controversial system to two new sites.
